The vision becomes a journey. Jennifer selects destinations, accommodations, and experiences that match the client's brief exactly, weaving together a trip that feels personal from start to finish.

03

COORDINATE

Every detail is handled. Jennifer manages flights, transfers, reservations, and on-ground logistics so travelers can be fully present without worrying about what comes next.

"Where family, fun, and luxury met in perfect harmony."

A multi-generational family trip designed to keep ten travelers across three generations equally engaged and smiling. The goal: sunshine, fun, luxury, and genuine reconnection before the school year began.

No pre-selected destination, a tight Wednesday-to-Sunday window for working professionals, and a limited budget paired with refined taste and high expectations across three very different generations.

THE APPROACH

A discovery questionnaire mapped each traveler's style. Kids wanted waterparks and animals; adults wanted fine dining and downtime. Jennifer built an itinerary around Play, Explore, and Unwind, with private transport, fine dining, a surprise desert dinner, spa vouchers for adults, and goodie bags for the children. A private concierge group chat kept everyone updated throughout.

"Where love took flight above the Riviera and landed in forever."

A romantic escape through the South of France, designed as a surprise trip that evolved into a life-changing moment. Riviera glamour, quiet intimacy, and a flawlessly choreographed proposal overlooking the Mediterranean at sunset.

THE CHALLENGE

Every detail had to feel completely natural and spontaneous while being meticulously planned behind the scenes. Coordinating the surprise across five Riviera destinations required absolute precision, discretion, and trust from all service partners.

THE APPROACH

The five-day journey built emotional momentum from Cannes through Monaco, St. Tropez, and Nice. On the proposal day, Jennifer arranged a private helicopter tour above the coastline, followed by dinner at Grand Hotel du Cap Ferrat. A quiet garden walk led through memory photos presented by briefed staff, guiding her to a private sunset terrace where the proposal waited.
